

COSHH

Course Overview

Using chemicals or other hazardous substances at work can put people's health at risk. Under the Control of Substances Hazardous to Health Regulations (COSHH), employers must control exposure to any hazardous substance which can be harmful to the employees and others.

Course Objectives

Fully understand the need for COSHH regulations
Appreciate the duties and responsibilities of the Employer and Employee
Be able to carry out comprehensive assessments in line with COSHH regulations
Be able to identify hazardous products and materials and storage required
Be able to implement effective control measures in the workplace
Be able to undertake efficient monitoring and health surveillance activities
To understand the environmental impact and disposal

Course Content

- Types and properties of chemicals
- Routes of entry
- Health effects of exposure
- Identification of hazardous substances
- Legal requirements
- COSHH Regulations
- Chemicals (Hazard, Information and Packaging for Supply) Regulations
- Hazards and risk
- Protective equipment including selection of Respiratory Protection
- COSHH assessments

Who Should Attend

The course will be of particular interest to those with a direct or indirect responsibility for the management of hazardous substances when used, stored or supplied in the workplace.

Number of Candidates per Course

12

Duration

½ Day or One Full Day

Course Outcome

Anglia Risk Solutions - Certificate of Attendance

Related Courses

Environment Awareness