

Underground Cable Avoidance

Course Overview

The course will provide individuals with a basic understanding of the need for avoiding underground apparatus, along with an insight to the theory and practical use of cable locating equipment and cable tracing (Cat & Genny).

Course Objectives

On completion of this course the individual will be able to use plans to identify services, trace for cables, pipes, etc using the necessary and appropriate equipment and comply with HSG47 (CDM07).

Course Content

By the end of the course delegates will be able to:

- Read and understand site plans
- Principles of location and avoidance of underground services
- Operate cable avoidance tools in order to avoid or locate underground apparatus
- Identify potential risks to themselves and others

Who Should Attend

The course is aimed at operatives and supervisors involved in the use of cable avoiding and detection equipment.

Number of Candidates per Course

12

What to bring

Please contact us for information.

Duration

½ Day including practical assessment

Course Outcome

Anglia Risk Solutions Certificate of Attendance